VOL. CL--NO. 69

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 23, 1900.

PRICE 2 CTS.

"I was suffering with what the doctor called chronic indigestion, torpid liver and vertigo," says Mrs. Martha E. Barham of Newell, Prince George Co., Va. "My symptoms were giddiness in the head, pains in my chest and an uneasy feeling all over. I also had female weakness. I was all run down, and could not do any work without suffering from nervous attacks, so I wrote to you. You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' I used five bottles of each. I gained in health and strength. When I commenced to use the medicine I weighed only 112 pounds, now I weigh 140. My husband and friends all thought that I would die, but today I am a well woman."

"If you have any doubt as to the nature of your ailment write fully, giving your symptoms, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. He will consider your case carefully, and will tell you absolutely free of charge, what to do to get well."

For Over Fifty Years
An Old and Well-Tried Remedy—Mrs. Barham's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, keeps the mouth moist, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Secure and ask for Mrs. Barham's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Dr. H. H. Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it. Quickly cures coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung diseases."

SECURED DAMAGES.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Luray, Va., March 22.—It will be recalled that in 1896 the government, through some of its agents, seized the distillery of R. L. Prichard & Co., near Luray, and brought charges of illicit distilling, running a "sweet shop" and other offenses, which resulted in indictment of the three members of the firm, R. L. Prichard, A. J. Hoffman and Joo W. Rothgeb.

On this they were tried before Judge Paul in the U. S. Court at Harrisonburg in 1897, and each and all found not guilty, the government utterly failing to prove any of the crimes charged brought by agents more zealous than prudent, to say the least. The trial, the stopping of their distilling for two years, the heavy loss of whisky by flood whilst the plant was in charge of the government, the consequent resulting loss occurring on account of the wrongful seizure caused heavy loss to three good men who would not knowingly do a crime and they placed the matter before the Court of Claims at Washington, which has just favorably passed upon the case, allowing the firm $3,224.27 about on half the amount claimed.

This is a just award, and though it will not reimburse actual expenditure of money, it sustains what they always have claimed that they are innocent men and did not do the government any wrong, and why its agents should have brought such false charges against them is, they say, one of the things they would like to know.

A verdict of acquittal before the jury and this award at the hands of the Court of Claims cannot but dispel any doubt as to their innocence and must vindicate them before the people who always like to see that justice is done, even in the making of whisky. It is no light matter to bring such serious, disastrous and capricious charges against men whose lives and reputations should have been a check to reckless or vindictive accusation, though tardy, sometimes, yet truth is mighty and must prevail and justice will clear away the doubts that sometimes interpose to the best of men.

[COMMUNICATED.]
HONESTY AMONG THIEVES.
It seems strange indeed that the great Christian nations of Europe, as well as the government of our republic, should permit the uneven struggle between Great Britain and the two republics of South Africa to be carried on to the bitter end, thus becoming accessories to one of the greatest crimes of modern times—the wrecking of one of the few real governments of, for and by the people—people who ask for no other favor than to be left alone to pursue their own happiness according to the dictates of their conscience; a people to whom hypocrisy is unknown, true Christians, pure and simple, proving their Christianity by their deeds. Why is it that all the so-called Christian nations permit this? Is it a common fear they have for the great power of England? Not by any means; because her weakness is a power has been shown to such an extent as not to let her appear any longer in the light of a desirable ally for any of the great powers of Europe or of the United States. The only reason she is allowed to do it, is that within the last few decades all the great powers of Europe have followed in the wake of this robber nation "par excellence" and are all engaged in acquiring territory and wealth at the expense of weaker nations for the purpose of extending their commercial and political influence, instead of standing by her glorious record of the past of fostering and encouraging sister republics the world over, has asserted on a similar errand in the Philippines. They are all tarred with the same stick and their policy of keeping off hands while two republics are being murdered is simply a case of honesty among thieves.

MAJOR MOTT.—A letter from Paris says: "Major T. Bentley Mott should be extremely flattered at the genuine pleasure expressed on all sides when the announcement was made that he had been accredited military attaché to the American embassy in Paris, where, I am told, he will report in May. He possesses all the qualities necessary to make him a very valuable adjunct to General Porter's staff. For so young a man, Major Mott has seen considerable service, and at Manila, and again at Cuba, was selected by his commanding officers for promotion. He is a gentleman, a scholar, and proficient in the French language, so necessary for a residence in a foreign capital. With the appreciation of our great country, and the added respect and deference paid to America and Americans, it seems to me too much attention cannot be given to the choice of our European representatives. When the history of President McKinley shall be written and the wearisome detail have given place to results, I think a page will be found devoted to the very superior choice he has made in his selection of representatives of the American government to European capitals."

Mr. Mott is a son of the late Dr. A. R. Mott, of Leesburg, and has many friends in this city and vicinity who will be glad to hear of his complimentary appointment.

A Night of Terror.
"A fearful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. E. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die of Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying that it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced to all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, 100 N. 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by all druggists.

How to Save Doctor Bills.
We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor, and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEAKLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by all druggists.

TRUST THOSE WHO HAVE TRIED.
I SUFFERED from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm saved me to do even that.—Oscar Ostrom 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.
I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and am entirely well.—A. C. Clarke 341 Shawmut Ave., Boston, Mass.
The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 53 Warren St., New York.

To secure the original with hex 13, ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, well known as a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. They are dangerous.
